The Trial of Jefferson Davis. It is stated that the Court for the trial of Juffer son Davis, on the hill of indictment for high trea son found by the grand jury at Norfolk, is to be nond, and it the trial should convened at Richmond, and it the frait should come off the Jurors will, of course, have to be drawn from the Judicial district in which the trial takes place. This will be trying All Baba by a select Jury of twelle chosen from among the Forty Thieves; it will be questioning the right of Maximilian to usurp Imperial powers in Mex-ico before a tribunal selected by Napoleon III. or requesting Captain Semmes to answer the charges of piracy and treason before a jury composed of twelve "good men and true" drawn from the body of the crew of the late Confederate teamer Alabama. steamer Alabama.

The Richmond Examiner, in a reent editorial article, declared that while Diogenes carried his lantern to but little purpose in looking for an honest man, he would absolutely waste the embedding the control of the dle in searching for white Union men in Virgin ia. We admire the plain-spokeness of the Exammer, and what is more, we believe it searcely goes beyond the literal troth in its declaration. The trial of the arch-traitor before a jury drawn from such a population would be one of the most stupendous burlesques of the present or any

Judge Underwood's Charge. The charge of Judge Underwood to the Gran Jury of Norfolk, which has indicted Jeff Davis for treason, is largely occupied with the bane ful influence of slavery in Virginia, and the de-morllization consequent upon the rebellion. He calls attention also to the disloyal press of the State, and adds: While concurring with the Lieutenant General and the distinguished soldier and accomplished lawyer who commands the Department of Virginia, in the propriety of abiling by military law such papers during the of martial law, and recognizing the distinction between liberty and licentiousness after matture reflection we doubt the policy of suppressing by courts papers as treasonable as any ever in this State. Much complaint has been evade by our fellow ettlems of the North of the ardiness of our criminal prosecutions. We think it better, in imitation of the great and good martyred Lincoln, and the imitation of the great rule; of the universe, whose judgments and retributions are slow but sure, that we should approach this great question of punishment of the authors of the terrible and unprovoked rebellion, with all possible deliberation, discrimi nution, caution and elemency, so that no unneces-sary blood shall be added to the torrents that have already sowted the soil of our devoted State. have arrany source the source of the Cresident in This control entrely agrees with the President in his often repeated declaration that treason is the greatest of crimes, and ought to be signally pun-ished, and that it is cowardly to punish subordi-nates and the comparatively insignificant, and allow the principals to escape. We also concur in the opinion that the leaders in the late rebellion may be resited either as traitors or public enemics, as they were, undoubtedly, bath by the laws of nations and common laws.

"The Anniversaries. From the New York Evening Post.

The anniver-arries were as largely attended this year as bas been ensementy for many years. The interest displayed appears to be on the increase. The excettile events of the last five years, so far from diminishing, have obviously deepened the religious southment of the country. Not only have recitals of the speakers at the different anniver-ary meetings been heard with earnest at mann, but the prevailary contributious required to sustain the several enterprises have been, by general, much slip hereased; and in the one or two cases where there had been an apparent falling off, this was attributable to other reasons than a decline of interest.

Head-Centre Stephens and the Factions of the Brotherhood—Frespects of Reorganization.

Much exchement oxists in New York and its vicinity among the members of the Fenian organization and those who sympathize with the Fenian constant an movement, in coinsagnence of the arrival of James Stephens, the great centre, from Ireland. Thus far but fow persons have been admitted to Mr. Stephens' presence at the Metropolitan Hotel. The entrance of the batch was througed duting Saint-day by Irishmen who were auxious to obtain a glimpac of their famous teader. They were disappointed, however, as Mr. Stephens will romain excluded from the public for the present, or at least until the time when he can heat the differences oxisting among the members of the Fenian organizations in this city and country. Staurday morning he was visited by Col. Joint O'Mahony, Gen. Win. J. Hajpien, Rev. Father Curley, Jas. J. Rogers and other nored Fenians. Mr. Stephens received his visiture contreously. He is slightly below the average height, stoutly built, and of sandy compication. His presence is good, and the impression made by a first view is hard, able. He has whiskers on his chin, and is baid upon the top of his head, the baldness conforming very nearly to the shape of his hat where it touches the head. Mr. Stephens has the appearance of being abrewd, rather than grent.

In relation to his future course Mr. Stephens is very reaffully examined the postition of affairs connected with the Fenian organization.

It has been proposed to hold a meeting at Jones' Wood, at which Mr. Stephens will make an address, and a committee was appointed this morning to make arrangements for such agathering. It will not take place, however, until the important work of bringing together the different factions of the organization has been consumsted.

Senate to unite in giving a phone reception to Mr. Stephens Senate, which was in sea-ion, considered this proposition for a long turn, and it is understood to have met with much opposition from some of the members, as Mr. Stephens land publicly stigmatized the Fenian Senate as cusnics of beland.

While this meeting was in progress a messenger arrived, asyin; that Mr. Stephens would like to have an interview with President Roberts and make his acquaintance. From intunatious thrown out with those function with all the facts, it seems probable that Mr. Stephens with all the facts, a public retraction of his letter against the Senate, on the ground that it was written upon labe information.

public retraction of his letter against the Senate, on the ground that it was written upon latso in formation.

Read Centre John O'Mahony has tendered his resignation, and signified his willinguess to turn over the property of the organization to Mr. Stephens, if he is directed to do so by the Feenian ereles. It is understood that this action has been taken to avoid difficulty in the reorganization of the Brotherhood and to help forward the Fenian movement.

Colone Kelly, who is with Mr. Stephens, speaks encouragingly of the position of aftairs in Ireland. The membership of the Fenian organization in that county is lar greater than is generally supposed, and the system of communication between different sections of it is perfect.

The want left at the present that is the scarcity of arms. That Mr. Stephens and his fields believe that the liberation of treland is possible at an early day is shown by the sincerity and enthusiasm of their conversation.

The condidence which is reposed in Mr. Stephens among the Celtic portion of our population, and the step hold whiter the Fenian movements has upon their sympathies, were exhibited lest evalug upon the arrival of the steamship which is ought Mr. Stephens to this port.

of the fall elections must depend in a great deorganization-expressed in a faithful and energutic support of its most trustworthy men and a stern and determined repudnation of the claims of designing demagogues, who are labor-ing temporarily to promote the success of principles and measures which they abhor-shall be the rating features of its action, all will be well, and the Republican hosts of Pennsylvania will march onward to assured victory. But if an overweening desire to conciliate or advance the political fortunes of conservative men, shall lead to a dilution of Republican principles, or a sacrifice of the tried and true men of the puty, to fitness for the position. Judging of this by the almost universal expressions of the leading citizens of this city and vicinity, and from our per sonal knowledge of his popularity at home, we do not hesitate to say, that in patriotic devotion to the principles of universal liberty, in unswery ing integrity, for earnest ability as a lawyer and for the most generous and disinterested benevolence as, a man and citizen, he is the peer of any man in Western Pennsylvania. Subsequent to the failurs of the bank, a large number of small depositors were paid off, not by the bank nor by the President of the bank in an official character, but by the individual resources, of E.H.-Chase. Those small depositors were represented to me to be suffering for food, and I left constrolled to reflect them to the extent of my means, and did so not expecting to be called to an account for R. Neither did I wait to Inquire of what nationality, parentage, class, seet, or complexion they consisted.

It appears that non of these great wrongs have any connection with myself as an officer of the tank, but the list item as an individual, and I am willing to abide the decision of my intelligent fellow clitzous as to the wong or eriminality in that. I am now willing, and always intend to answer promptly any reasonable inquiries in relation to public affairs with which I am connected, and it is future I should be Inclined to ask some questions, I hope parties will be as ready to respond. The annual primary elections of the Republicans of Crawford county, for the nomination of party candidates, are to be held on Friday, June and include the choice for a member of Congress. The Congressional District comprises the counties of Crawford, Venango, Clarion and Mr. Culver, the present Representative is a resident of Franklin, and party usage and comity demand that his successor shall be a resident of this county. It is therefore peculiarly the duty of our party friends at this inneture to unite upon the candidate who will represent in its broadest and truest sense the Republicanism of Western Pennsylvania. Upon the results gree the future of the party in the State, and perhaps in the Union. If a firm adherence to the fundamental principles of the Republican suit individuals who have only coquetted with the party for the spoils of office—and whose only principle of action in former years was a bitter and nacompromising hatrod of Republican principles and men-disaster must inevitably follow. No party can afford to abandon its principles or to sacrifice its tried and ablest champions. Whatever party attempts it is protty certain to meet with the defeat which its treachery murits.

In announcing the range of Hon, D. A. Fin nev of Meadville as a candidate for nomination the Union Republican party for Congress, we desire to express our conviction of his eminent Rean party stace its organization, and recognized by all as one of its most effective supporters in this District; and his long and successful pracsuccessful detater, qualify bim most admirably our estimation for the position in which has friends wish to place aim. His generous aid and requiregement to our brave soldiers in the field endears him to all our patriot volunteers, and we feel confident that he will receive a very large proportion of the soldiers' and citizens' votes. His ripe experience in political matters and his strong and decided convictions upon the great questions which are to be determined by the Congress of the United States in the nex fee years, are such as will commend. him to the g .
